VERNON S. BRODERICK, United States District Judge:

Defendant Moises Lluberes (“Lluberes”) is charged in Indictment 20 Cr. 493 (VSB) (Doc. 2 (“Indictment”)) with (1) conspiracy to commit bank fraud and wire fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1349 in Count One; (2) substantive wire fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1343 and 2 in Count Two; (3) substantive bank fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1344 and 2 in Count Three; and (4) conspiracy to commit money laundering, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1956(h) in Count Four. Lluberes filed a motion to modify his bail conditions by releasing $230,000 of the $286,588.16 cash portion of his bond, and the Government filed a motion for a post-indictment restraining order. On June 10, 2021, I granted Lluberes’s motion to modify his bail conditions by releasing $230,000 of the $286,588.16. (Doc. 66.) However, I also found that the Government had demonstrated probable cause to restrain the $286,588.16 cash portion of Lluberes’s bond, and I preliminarily granted the Government’s motion for a post-indictment restraining order. (Id.) On September 13 and 14, 2021, I held a hearing pursuant to United States v. Monsanto, 491 U.S. 600 (1989), after which the parties submitted post-hearing briefs. Currently before me are the Government’s motion to maintain the restraint on the $286,588.16, and Lluberes’s motion to lift the restraint. This short order decides these outstanding motions, and I will issue a detailed written opinion in the coming weeks explaining the legal basis for my decision. Based upon the papers submitted in connection with the pending motions related to the asset restraint and the Monsanto hearing, it is hereby ORDERED because I find that the Government has met its burden under United States v. Monsanto, 491 U.S. 600 (1989), the Government's motion to continue the restraint on the $286,588.16 is GRANTED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that because I find that the Government has met its burden under Monsanto, Defendant's motion to lift the restraint on the $286,588.16 to permit him to use these funds to pay his attorneys is DENIED.

SO ORDERED.
